

■ Academic age

*Number of years since your PhD defense/graduation or state medical examination

Net academic age, calculated in full-time equivalents (FTE), which is stated this in years and months.

Describe the non-academic activities that have had an impact on the academic career. You can deduce the following elements: maternity, paternity, adoption, parental leave, care duties, inability to work due to illness or accident, services that benefit the general public, particularly military or civilian service, continuing education, non-scientific activities (e.g. working for the private sector), clinical activities (account for 80% of a FTE), part-time work, unemployment.

The use of academic age template is optional

Template

Dissertation defended		month year
Gross academic age		month(s) and year(s)
Deductions: – Deduction 1 – Deduction 2 – Deduction 3	Duration (month(s) and year(s)) and employment rate		Year(s) and month(s) of deduction
Total deductions		month(s) and year(s)
Net academic age		month(s) and year(s)

Here are three examples showing you how to calculate the academic age:

yr = year ; mth = month

Example 1

Dissertation defended		September 2012
Deadline for submission of funding ap-plication		October 2022
Gross academic age		10 yr 2 mth
Deductions: – maternity – part-time work – continuing education	18 mth: 100% interruption 4 yr: 80% of full time 4 mth: 50% interruption		1 yr 6 mth deducted 10 mth deducted 2 mth deducted
Total deductions		2 yr 6 mth
Net academic age		7 yr 8 mth

Example 2

State medical examination		October 2017
Deadline for submission of funding ap-plication		February 2023
Gross academic age		5 yr 5 mth
Deductions: – clinical activities	2 yr: 10% of full time 4 yr: 80% clinical work	4 mth deducted 3 yr 2 mth de-ducted
Total deductions		3 yr 2 mth
Net academic age		2 yr 3 mth

Example 3

Dissertation defended		April 2002
Deadline for submission of funding ap-plication		October 2022
Gross academic age		20 yr 7 mth
Deductions: – n/a	n/a	0
Total deductions		0
Net academic age		20 yr 7 mth	