

Supports for social and community participation

Connecting with activities

A text-only Easy Read version

How to use this guide

The National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) wrote this guide.

When you see the word 'we', it means the NDIA.

We wrote this guide in an easy to read way.

We use pictures to explain some ideas.

We wrote some important words in bold.

This means the letters are thicker and darker.

We explain what these words mean.

There is a list of these words on page 11.

This is text-only Easy Read summary of another guide.

You can find the other guide on our website.

Website: ourguidelines.ndis.gov.au/connecting-social-and-community-activities

You can ask for help to read this guide.

A friend, family member or support person may be able to help you.

What's in this guide?

What is social and community participation?	3
About this guide	4
Connecting with activities	5
What supports can you get?	5
Who can you talk to about supports?	8
More information	10
Word list	11

What is social and community participation?

These guides are about social and community participation.

Participation is when you take part.

Social and community participation is about:

- meeting people who like the same things as you
- doing activities with other people in the community.

It is about doing things that you enjoy.

And it can mean different things to different people.

For example, you might want to:

- go to a café
- join a netball team.

Why is it important?

Social and community participation can help you feel:

- safe in your community
- like you belong.

It can give you the chance to:

- build relationships with friends
- try new things
- find activities you enjoy.

It can also help you get ready to find a job.

Or learn to do more things for yourself.

You can also change what activities you do if you want.

For example, if you don't enjoy an activity anymore.