HOW IS YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION COLLECTED?

We collect personal information about employees through the application and recruitment process, either directly from candidates or sometimes from an employment agency or background check provider. We may sometimes collect additional information from third parties including former employers or background check agencies.

We will collect additional personal information in the course of job-related activities throughout the period of you working with us.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to comply with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the health and safety of our employees).

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT, STORE AND USE ABOUT THOSE EMPLOYED TO TEACH AT ST. OLIVER PLUNKETT'S P.S. FORKHILL.

We will collect, store and use the following categories of personal information about school employees:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number, next of kin details and emergency contact information, photographs, bank account details and tax status information)
- special categories of data including characteristics information (such as gender, age, ethnic group, trade union membership, information regarding your health and AccessNI Enhanced Disclosure application and outcome)
- recruitment information (such as copies of references, information included in a CV or letter as part of the application process)
- contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information, annual leave, leaving date and your reasons for leaving)
- performance information (including training records and professional memberships)
- disciplinary and grievance information
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons, including in respect of parental leave)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- CCTV footage captured in school and other information obtained through electronic means (such as swipe card records)
- information about your use of our information and communications systems

WHY DO WE COLLECT AND USE THIS INFORMATION?

St. Oliver Plunkett's P.S. collects and uses your personal information primarily to allow us to perform our contract with you. For example:

- Making a decision about your recruitment or appointment
- Determining the terms on which you work for us
- checking you are legally entitled to work in the UK
- [paying you and, if you are an employee or deemed employee for tax purposes, deducting tax and National Insurance contributions (NICs)]
- [enrolling you in a pension arrangement in accordance with our statutory automatic enrolment duties]
- administering the contract of employment CCMS has entered into with you
- business management and planning, including accounting and auditing
- conducting performance reviews, managing performance and determining performance requirements
- making decisions about salary reviews and compensation
- assessing qualifications for a particular job or task, including decisions about promotions
- gathering evidence for possible grievance or disciplinary hearings
- making decisions about your continued employment or engagement
- making arrangements for the termination of our working relationship
- education, training and development requirements
- dealing with legal disputes involving you, or other employees, workers and contractors, including accidents at work
- ascertaining your fitness to work
- managing sickness absence
- complying with health and safety obligations
- to monitor your use of our information and communication systems to ensure compliance with our IT policies
- to ensure network and information security, including preventing unauthorised access to our computer and electronic communications systems and preventing malicious software distribution
- to conduct data analytics studies to review and better understand employee retention and attrition rates
- equal opportunities monitoring

Some of the above grounds for processing will overlap and there may be several grounds which justify our use of your personal information.

We have a legal right to collect and use personal information relating to our staff, for example:

- to enable the development of a comprehensive picture of our workforce and how it is deployed
- to inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- to enable individuals to be paid
- to administer school property
- to maintain our own accounts and records
- to carry out fundraising
- to support staff training
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
