~~Seattle Pacific University: School of Education~~
~~2022–2023 Academic Year~~

The following report gathered information from students who earned certificates or degrees between September 1, 2022 and August 31, 2023. Two surveys were used to gather information, including an end-of-program and completer surveys. End-of-program surveys were deployed several days before spring graduation. Completer surveys were deployed six months after spring graduation.
