

Charity Commission No. 1165574

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Child and Young Person Sessional Therapist

Attributes	Essential	Desirable	How Identified	Comments	Scores 1-5
SKILLS AND ABILITIES	Team Player and self-motivated	Word processing skills	Application form
	• Verbal and written communication skills • Offer a range of models of therapy • Ability to prioritise workload and manage time effectively • To work in partnership with other agency workers • Word processing skills for report writing, invoicing		Application form

	• To attend in-house monthly supervision, team meetings and self-monitor • Work within a child-centred framework and offer a safe, therapeutic and confidential space • Demonstrate on-going professional development • To have excellent understanding of safeguarding procedures • Creative ways of working with Children and Young People • Plan and maintain deadlines with paperwork	Additional training courses Training courses	Copies of certificates
EXPERIENCE	• To hold recognised accredited qualification either at degree or diploma level 5 and above in any particular therapeutic modality • To be registered with the BACP, UKCP, HCPC or equivalent professional registration body • Working towards full accreditation if appropriate	1-2 years working with Children and Young people in a similar setting Qualified in Child and adolescent therapy either degree or diploma/certificate level	Application form Copies of certificates Case studies at interview

	• 3-5 years working with children, and young people • Up-to-date safeguarding training
KNOWLEDGE	• Understanding issues surrounding abuse of children and young people and the effects on Children and Young People • Understanding of the HCPC or BACP ethical guidelines for therapy and counselling and supervision • Other statutory, voluntary organisations for sign posting • Understanding of Diversity and Equality • Understanding of Child developmental stages	Aware of recent publications and effective ways of working with abuse	Questions in interview
PERSONAL ATTRIBUTES AND OTHER REQUIREMENTS	• Enthusiastic and committed to working against abuse that affects Children and Young People • No record of criminal conviction or other record of activity in relevant areas or having been proscribed by other relevant organisations • A commitment to human rights and equal opportunities	Empathic, approachable with a good sense of humour Able to work flexible hours as required	Observation and feedback from CYP activity

	• Able to be flexible with working hours to meet client needs • Empathic approach, with a good sense of humour • Foster good relations with external organisations • To participate in charity events when possible
--	---	--	--	--	--