

Generally, you must give notice to the Commission and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with your case if you wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent you in a conference or hearing with a Commission Member. You do not, however, need to give notice or ask permission if the lawyer or paid agent is an employee or officer of your business or an employee or officer of an employer organisation. Generally, you must give notice to the Commission and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with your case if you wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent you in a conference or hearing with a Commission Member. You do not, however, need to give notice or ask permission if the lawyer or paid agent is an employee or officer of your business or an employee or officer of an employer organisation. Generally, you must give notice to the Commission and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with your case if you wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent you in a conference or hearing with a Commission Member. You do not, however, need to give notice or ask permission if the lawyer or paid agent is an employee or officer of your business or an employee or officer of an employer organisation. Generally, you must give notice to the Commission and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with your case if you wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent you in a conference or hearing with a Commission Member. You do not, however, need to give notice or ask permission if the lawyer or paid agent is an employee or officer of your business or an employee or officer of an employer organisation. Hey more lines is needed Generally, you must give notice to the Commission and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with your case if you wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent you in a conference or hearing. How bout now? Maybe this will work now. Lets see how this goes

TITLE IN HERE

How about now , lets change the Title to HEADING 1