

BOONES CREEK CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Associate Minister Job Description

Position Summary: Responsible for sharing in ministry with the Senior Minister in any and all areas when necessary or requested.

Job Status: Full-Time

FLSA Status: Minister

Direct Report to: Senior Minister; employment items Administrative Minister

Essential Duties:

- Assist Senior Minister as needed in ministry with funerals, weddings, baptisms, teaching, and preaching.
- Participate regularly in promoting the ongoing health of the church by visitation, specifically to the hospitalized, sick, shut-in, and in members' homes as requested or advantageous.
- Serve as a resource for initial personal or family counseling for members, regular attenders, and others as referred. Should their counseling needs be ongoing or require the services of a professional counselor, a referral should be made to a local professional counselor or group.
- Assist individuals in personal growth by recommending resources for Scripture studies, growth in prayer, other books and tools, etc.
- Follows the leadership of the Senior Minister in implementing and supporting the evangelistic vision of the church.
- Organizes and coordinates follow through with Guests after receiving the information from the Guest Services Ministry Team (staff & volunteers). Uses Senior Minister and other Staff as appropriate to ensure all Guests are warmly greeted following their visit and receive information they would like regarding BCCC.
- Work in conjunction with the Adult Education Minister to contact each New Member to BCCC (those baptized or transferring their membership) to ensure they are finding Sunday School classes, Small Groups, and other resources for growing in their relationship with Jesus and BCCC.
- Work with the Senior Minister and/or Administrative Minister to find a way to ensure the younger generations of the church are being sought for salvation and discipleship.
- Develop one or two specific interests or activities away from the church for continual contact with other people and opportunities to be 'salt and light'.

Occasional Duties:

- Assist in other ministerial duties as directed by the Senior Minister or Administrative Minister.
